Willis and Hoover Enter Preference Primaries In Ohio

Declarations of Candidacy On File, Qualifying Them For April 24 Primaries; Lists of Delegates to Convention Are Completed

Columbus, Feb. 25.—With their declarations of candidacies on file today with Secretary of State Clarence J. Brown, U. S. Senator Frank B. Willis secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover and Olin J. Ross, Columbus attorney, have qualified for entrance in the Ohio presidential preference primaries to be held April 24.

All three are candidates for the Republican presidential nomination. Announcement was made today at the secretary of state's office that no candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination had qualified for a presidential preference vote in the Buckeye state.

Opportunity for filing such declarations expired at midnight last night. The Ohio election laws prohibit the filing of such declarations after February 24.

Complete Lists
Complete lists of candidates for delegates-at-large, alternates-at-large, and congressional district delegates and alternates to the Republican and Democratic national conventions to be held next summer have been filed by Willis, Hoover and Democratic leaders of their respective campaigns in Ohio. Ross did not enter the G. O. P. contest for delegates.

Ohio Republican voters on April 24 will be presented with a primary ballot consisting of the names of 102 Willis candidates and 102 Hoover candidates from which will be chosen the Ohio delegation to the Republican national convention to be held in Kansas City, Mo., next June.

Entitled to 51 votes on roll calls while balloting for a Republican presidential nominee, the G. O. P. delegation from the Buckeye state will comprise seven delegates-at-large, 44 congressional district delegates, seven alternates-at-large and 44 district alternates.

The Democrats, apparently, will have no presidential preference ballot. The Democratic primary ballot will be limited to the names of 104 candidates for delegates and alternates who will comprise the Ohio delegation to the Democratic National convention at Houston, Texas. The delegation will be entitled to 44 votes.

All the Democratic candidates are pledged to support former U. S. Senator Arthur C. Pomeroy, Cleveland, for first choice, and former Congressman George White, Marietta, for second choice. On initial roll calls for the Democratic presidential nomination, the delegation will compromise eight delegates-at-large, entitled to a half-vote each, and 44 congressional district delegates, with one vote each, eight alternate-at-large and 44 district alternates.

Hoover Candidates
All of the Hoover candidates for delegates and alternates are pledged to support Hoover for first choice and James R. Garfield, Mentor, son of the late President James Garfield, for second choice.

While all of the Willis candidates are pledged to Willis as their first choice, 24 of the candidates for delegates-at-large and district delegates selected former Gov. Frank O. Lowden, Illinois, as their second choice, and nine designated Charles R. Fisher, Wilmington, Ohio, retired newspaper publisher and banker, for second choice.

COL. THOMPSON CONFIDENT OF OHIO RESULTS

Tells Willis He Has No Fear of Outcome Of Ohio Contest

Columbus, Feb. 25.—"I have no fear of the results at Ohio's presidential primaries on April 24," declared Col. Carmi A. Thompson, in a telegram sent to U. S. Senator Frank B. Willis at Washington, D. C.

Thompson, who is manager of the campaign on behalf of Willis for the Republican presidential nomination, made public a copy of the telegram this afternoon.

"I am pleased to notify you that a full list of delegates and alternates, pledged to you, have been filed in all the (Ohio congressional) districts and at large," Thompson wired Willis. "As men and women, they are representative citizens of Ohio and will wage a winning fight."

Leaders at Willis headquarters this afternoon announced receipt of word that the Muskingum county Republican central committee, at a meeting last night, unanimously adopted a resolution endorsing Willis for president. This action it was stated, was taken after the committee dismissed the G. O. P. county executive committee which about 16 days ago, it was said, endorsed Hoover.

Declaring that the action of the executive committee "did not represent the sentiment of the Republicans of Muskingum county," the central committee, it was stated, created a new executive committee. It was stated that 16 of the 21 members of the county central committee were present and voted for the resolution endorsing Willis.

The action of the Muskingum county committee, in reversing the action of the former executive committee, places Muskingum county's organization in line with the other counties of that district, declared Charles A. Jones, secretary to Willis.

City officials who have just completed a series of inspections of fire fighting equipment will confer with the ordinance committee of city council, possibly today, in regard to recommendations for the purchase of a new pumper fire truck to replace the Robinson pumper now in use.

Written recommendations of the committee, together with legislation, probably will be submitted to the next meeting of council.

Fire Chief Vincent Malloy, Safety Director Rex W. Ruggie and Service Director C. A. Cavanaugh returned today from Columbus and Cincinnati where they witnessed demonstrations of the Seagrave and Ahrens-Fox equipment.

Blackmer Confirms Father's Oil Deals

Young Blackmer Says His Father Told Him of Making Profit of $750,000 in Continental Deal; Didn't Know Whether He Would Keep the Profit

Washington, Feb. 25.—Myron K. Blackmer, son of the missing Henry M. Blackmer, today confirmed the revelation that his father obtained a $750,000 share in the mysterious Continental Trading company's $3,080,000 Liberty Bond "slush fund."

Young Blackmer, a vice-president in the Midwest Refining company, said his father had told him of making a $750,000 profit in the Continental deal. He shed no new light, however, on that deal.

"When did you first hear of the Continental Trading company?" asked Senator Walsh.

"When it came out in the newspapers," said Blackmer. "I never knew about the contractual relations between the Continental and the others. I only heard of that about two years later. My father told me he had an interest in the Continental. He said his interest amounted to $750,000."

Young Blackmer said his father went to Europe in February, 1924. "What did your father tell you about the Continental?"

"He told me he had an interest there—that he had made $750,000," said Blackmer. "He didn't know whether he would keep the profit or not because the Midwest Refining company might think it had an interest in the matter. He was going to wait and see what came up on that before he would consider it all his property."

"What interest could the Midwest have in that profit?"

"I presume it would be because he was an officer of the Midwest."

"Did he tell you how he got that profit?"

"No, he gave me no details."

Blackmer said his father had instructed him to keep the information about his share confidential.

"He told me he had received his share in bonds," he said.

Salem Bank President Is Elected Chairman Of New Association

The Columbiana County Bankers association was formed at a meeting of county bankers at Hotel Hostetter, Lisbon, Friday night, and President B. L. Flick of the Farmers National bank of Salem, was elected its first chairman.

The next meeting of the association will be the second Wednesday in May at a place yet to be determined by the executive committee, composed of the officers. At that time Charles H. Millard, secretary of the Ohio State Bankers association, may speak.

Bankers attending from Salem were President Flick and Cashier Orville C. Hoover, Farmers National; President K. L. Webster, Secretary-Treasurer A. E. Beardmore and Director R. M. Atchison, Citizens Savings; and W. F. Church, cashier of the First National.

Dugmore, Explorer, To Show Movies Of Wild Animal Life

Unusual Entertainment
On Monday Night Under Rotary Auspices

"The closer the lion, the bigger and better the picture."

That is the motto of Major A. Radcliffe Dugmore, noted British photographer, who brings his motion pictures of big game in Africa to the High School auditorium Monday night under the auspices of the crippled children's work committee of the Rotary club.

Major Dugmore, who has faced death a thousand times in the jungles in his endeavor to get close pictures of wild beasts, has reels of films packed with thrills which held London audiences spellbound, and now are doing the same to American audiences.

Twelve yards from a lion, the major secured photographs which are amazing. The lion in this particular case was lured toward the camera by means of a zebra as bait, but for a moment it nearly mistook the photographer for his bait. The major escaped with his pictures.

Big game can come closer to the photographer and he still lives. Once the major was on intimate terms with some wild elephants. He was perched in a blind awaiting a herd at a favorite watering hole when he suddenly heard elephants behind him.

Major Dugmore flopped on the ground, and the big bulls came on within eight feet of him. Their long trunks were over him, and they stayed 15 minutes, sensing a human was near, but they did not see him. After bad heart action for a time, the major was able to escape when the herd left. He got his pictures, too.

Incidents like this are all part of the day's work for Major Dugmore, and they make his pictures outstanding. No animals are shown dead and none are killed.

Lindy Interested In Fuelless Motor

Prospects of Revolutionizing Air, Land and Sea
Transportation Are Based On Principle Of Electro Magnetism; Lindy Tests It

Detroit, Feb. 25.—Prospect of revolutionizing air, land and sea transportation with a fuelless motor based on the principle of electro magnetism as applied to the rotary motion of the earth was seen today following Col. Charles A. Lindbergh's reported test of a motor of this type at Leif Seger's field yesterday.

Lindbergh and Major Thomas G. Lander were reported to be preparing to hop off today for Mitchell Field where they will discuss the invention with representatives of the Goodyear corporation.

Mrs. Lindbergh, mother of the famous flier, also started this morning on her flight to Boston where she will be honored by an educational society.

Invention is Veiled
The motor invention has been carefully veiled. The report from Leif Seger field today was that it had been tested yesterday with Colonel Lindbergh and Major Lander in attendance. Neither Lindbergh nor Lander confirmed the report.

Announcement such a motor had been actually tested was a complete surprise, knowledge of the existence of two-foot model of the motor has been current for some time. Its inventor is Lester J. Hendershot of Pittsburgh, a free-lance experimenter in motive power. His backer is said to be D. Barr Peat, also of Pittsburgh, manager of the Bettis Field Airport there.

Hendershot is credited with several successful electrical inventions, two of which he has sold to the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing company.

Layman's Description
He exhibited his model several weeks ago to friends. A layman pronounced it "Something like an earth inductor." (Continued on Page 4)

MacMillan Sends Greeting To Salem People; Picked Up by Amateur

Salem's first radio message from the far north has been received, and an answer sent.

Cracking through the frozen atmosphere, radio greetings from Capt. Donald B. MacMillan, noted Arctic explorer, were received Friday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dunn, Lincoln ave., through N. J. Green, an amateur operator of W. J. Cleveland.

Green received the following message at 2:18 p. m. Friday, and immediately phoned it to Mr. and Mrs. Dunn:

"Greetings to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dunn and many other good friends in Salem, Ohio, having a most interesting trip." It was signed by MacMillan. The message came through Labrador, but MacMillan is much farther north. Mr. Dunn gave Green an answer to the message and Green will attempt to get it through, it is said.

"Pleased to hear from you; we are all looking forward to seeing you back in Salem."

MacMillan has lectured here on his polar trips and is much interested in the city and its people. He uses Mullins steel boats as equipment for his famous ship, the Bowdoin. At present he is searching for traces of a lost tribe, whose life he is studying.

GRADE SCHOOL CONTRACTS LET

Heating, Plumbing, Wiring
Bids Opened For New Reilly Bldg.

Low bidders for heating, plumbing and wiring of new Reilly grade school were awarded the contracts by the board of education Friday night.

The William M. Lark Co., New Castle, Pa., with a bid of $12,134, secured the contract for installation of a steam heating system.

Plumbing went to the Sebring Hardware & Plumbing Co., Sebring, the bid of this firm being $5,529.

Electrical wiring of the building will be done by the G. A. Webster Electric Co., Youngstown, bidding $1,161.30.

Each bid is subject to alternates in case the board does not desire all work on the building completed. The entire plumbing work, however, will be done, whether or not the entire school is finished. It is probable that the school's second floor will be completed due to lack of funds.

Melvin E. Lutz, Canton, successful bidder for the general contract furnished satisfactory surety bond last night and is expected to begin work soon.

POLICE BATTLE SEXTET

Dynamite Charge Set Off
As Mail Clerks Are Lined Up Outside

BLAST SHOWERS
ALL WITH SACKS

Continuous Fire Prevents Terror-Stricken Passengers' Escape

Evergreen Park, Ill., Feb. 25.—Blasting a baggage coach on a Grand Trunk railroad train here today, six bandits armed with money ed off shotguns escaped with money officially announced as totalling $133,000 after a running gun battle with police.

The bandits gained entrance to the coach and commanded the baggage and mail clerks to line up on the outside of the train. A powerful dynamite charge was set at the end of the coach.

With a deafening explosion which completely wrecked the car, the blast went off, showering the bandits and train crew with miscellaneous racks containing shipments of currency for three large industrial plants.

Sacks Contain Thousands
One sack, consigned from the Federal Reserve bank of Chicago to the National bank of Harvey, Ill., contained $80,000, officials announced. Another sack, consigned from the First National bank of Chicago to the bank of Harvey, contained $53,000, bank officials stated.

At the train came to a halt two bandits stepped to the engine and covered the engineer and firemen with shotguns, ordered them to step down. Employees in the baggage and mail cars were covered likewise.

When one inquisitive baggage man peeked his head from the door he was greeted with a splattering of bullets over his head.

Bullets Stay Passengers
Hundreds of passengers sought to leave the coaches, terror-stricken, but were prevented by the other bandits who fired round after round of bullets at the sides of the coaches.

The leader of the bandits, all of whom were dressed in yellow raincoats and hunting boots, apparently a middle aged man, directed the actions of the others. He ordered Chief Clerk Charles Peters and his assistant, Joe Kelly, to lie down on the floor of their car. The men were bound with ropes, as the other bandits set the dynamite charge.

Dynamite and nitroglycerine charges were attached to the baggage car safe. Again as the blast roared passengers sought to leave the coaches but two bandits, detailed alongside of the train, kept up a continuous fire.

The holdup was staged with all the spectacular effects of a Jesse James adventure. Every action was timed to perfection. Each bandit had been assigned his particular task, eye-witnesses said.

The men, with guns in their hands and hunter's sacks at their belts as decoys, calmly waited at the depot as the train drew up. Many persons observed them but considering they were hunters, did not report the guns.

Benefit Show Will Raise Money for Uniforms
For Policemen

The police department will receive 50 per cent of the proceeds of the police benefit boxing show which will be staged at the Memorial building March 7, by Matt Bramson, Cleveland fight promoter.

Proceeds received by the department will be used to purchase uniforms for the policemen. Arrangements are being completed by the police committee in conjunction with Bramson.

In a letter to Mayor Phil Hiddleston, a member of the committee, the promoter states that a sell-out is probable. He finds much interest in the show in Alliance and other nearby cities, and fans from those cities will swell the crowd. Tickets are soon to be placed on sale.

Sergeant Fay, of Ft. Raleigh, Kan., is to be one of the principals in the main bout.

ANTI-PISTOL LEGISLATION

There has been criticism of New York state as the result of its enactment of the Baumes law providing for life imprisonment for criminals who are convicted four times for felonies. It seems to us that such a law for the protection of the law-abiding citizenry of that state is no more than fair and just in view of the fact that the state has enacted a law for the protection of criminals which has rendered law-abiding citizens of the state incapable of protecting themselves. The law to which we refer as affording protection to criminals is of course, the Sullivan law, under which the police take impressions of the thumbs and keep a record of every law-abiding citizen who is granted a license to own a gun, just as they take impressions of the thumbs of every crook and killer who falls into their hands.

Our attention is called to the Sullivan law at this time by a letter written by Chief Magistrate Joseph E. Corrigan, of New York City, addressed to Carl T. Fredericks, of the same city, a member of the American Bar association and the National Crime commission in which the chief magistrate says in part:

"Anti-pistol legislation is urged on the ground that it will prevent hold-ups and homicides. It has not done so here; on the contrary, they have increased."

"It is foolish to think that a man who is willing to risk the electric chair for shooting another person, will be deterred from shooting him by the thought that, in addition to being electrocuted, he may be fined $25 for carrying a concealed weapon. A man who is bent on a murder or a hold-up will carry out his purpose with some other weapon, if he can not obtain a pistol, and no amount of legislation will keep what may term 'bootleg' pistols out of the hands of the criminals."

"The theory upon which anti-pistol legislation is based is erroneous. We do not prohibit automobiles though they are used in committing crimes; nor pens because they are the tools of the forger. The real remedy for crimes lies in more prompt and efficient work by the police, the district attorney's office and the courts. The Baumes law has done more to reduce crimes of violence than could be accomplished by all the anti-pistol legislation ever suggested."

"The so-called Sullivan law under which we operate in New York has increased the opportunities for blackmail and injustice, for it is easy to 'plant' a gun on a person and then charge him with a crime."

"To show the folly of our law, I had a case before me, where a man was attacked by a thug, armed with a revolver, and he took the revolver away from his assailant. When he complained of the attack on arrival of a police officer, he was arrested for having the revolver in his possession. There have been a number of cases before me where householders have fired at burglars in defense of their lives and property, and have themselves been arrested for violation of our statutes."

"I could give many concrete instances where our law has done harm, but no case in which it has been of service."

As may be taken from the letter of Chief Magistrate Corrigan, there is agitation in other states for measures similar to the Sullivan law. As a matter of fact, such agitation is being manifested in many states throughout the country by much the same class of people who are seeking to make our government supine. We do not say wholly by that class, but largely so. They apparently seek to make the people of the land as helpless against the land's criminal element as they would make this country helpless against the assault of an alien foe. It's a manifestation of pacifism, and all such manifestations naturally have the support of the criminal element, the support of all those arrayed against law and order and government of any kind.

What Others Say

THE GREATEST CRIME

One can agree with Magistrate John V. Flood, of New York, that: "Perjury is a crime not only against God, but against the state. It is a serious crime because the theory on which our courts is based is that men are presumed to speak the truth."

But it is not so easy to find one's self in agreement with Rt. Rev. Michael J. Rippe, national director of the Holy Name society, who spoke from the same rostrum with Magistrate Flood.

Said Director Rippe: "Perjury is more serious than murder, adultery or burglary. Where the others offend the majesty of man, perjury offends the majesty of God."

We confess to an inability to comprehend this reasoning. It might be admitted that perjury was a graver crime than adultery or burglary, but in what conception can it be regarded as more to be condemned than the intentional taking of life—the most precious thing in all the universes of divinity?

Has the commandment, "Thou shalt not lie," a greater inhibitive validity than that one which says "Thou shalt not kill"? And why should this be so?

The wreck of two souls may be involved in murder, if we are to believe the teaching of our scriptures. The man who swears to a lie strikes at the heart of the state, of society and religion. But the murderer strikes at all of these, and also at the root of life. Through the ages murder has been estimated to be the major crime in crime's calendar. It is not likely that it ever will be generally considered as anything less than that.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

"TOO EFFICIENT"

When Admiral Plunkett made so bold as to say America is nearer to war than ever before because, as he put it, "we are too d—d efficient," it could not have been the navy bureaucrats' efficiency that he had in mind. For it has come out that after directing the rescue and salvage work on the submarine, S-31, which went down in 1925 with a loss of 33 lives, Commander Ellsberg reported as follows to his superiors:

"The exact date of the sinking of the next submarine cannot, of course, be foretold, but based on past performances it can be expected within the next three years. It is desirable that when it occurs, there be available such means for quick salvage that no possible criticism can be made of the navy on the ground of unpreparedness."

To this Commander Ellsberg added recommendations of specific measures which might be undertaken, as preparedness.

The report went into a pigeonhole. Two years and three months went by, and the disaster of the S-4 occurred. To all intents and purposes the navy was caught unprepared for quick salvage. So far as is known, 34 drowned at once as the water rushed into their compartments, but 34 survived for several days, during which they tapped out their agonizing question: "Is there any hope?"

Perhaps, if Ellsberg's counsel had been heeded, there might have been hope. Evidently it was not the navy bureaucrats of the swivel chairs and pigeonholes to whom Plunkett referred when he said, "We are too d—d efficient."—Minneapolis Journal.

County Auditors To Register Dogs

Columbus, Feb. 25.—It is the duty of county auditors to register unregistered dogs, Attorney General Edward C. Turner held today in a ruling given officials of the state bureau of inspection and supervision of public officers.

Turner, in a ruling to Prosecuting Attorney Henry W. Harter, Jr., Cincinnati, held that the trustees of each township are required to afford at the expense of the township public support or relief to all persons who are in condition requiring it and who reside in the territory within the township which lies outside the corporate limits of cities.

New Haven, Conn.—While the asphyxians may often lead to popularity, it led to the divorce court. Recently, Lester P. Boardley, 36, was divorced because his wife left him when she did not like his saxophone playing, he charges.

Here Are Good Tips From One Who Knows

By GRAHAM STEWART
(International Illustrated News Staff Correspondent)

ATTENTION, FOLKS!

John E. Andrus, Yonkers, N. Y., capitalist, has some interesting information on financial matters, as well as health and wealth hints, to give you.

"My formula for making money is to look ahead and be patient."

Fifty-eight years ago Andrus received permission to buy a few shares of Standard Oil stock "on tick." He was allowed to do this in lieu of a commission payment on a land deal which he engineered whereby the Standard bought its large tract of land in Bayonne, New Jersey. He still has the shares and they are worth many times what they cost him.

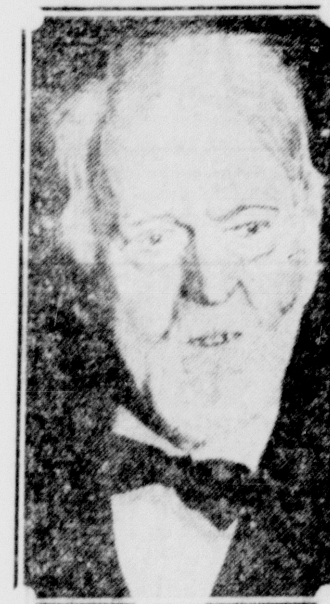

This explains his advice. The capitalist didn't go into detail as to how he gained his knowledge of women, but he has two plain truths for their use.

"Powder or paint or frills on a girl will not win her a husband of the right sort. The thinking young man will look beneath the color on her cheeks and let her alone."

"The ambition of every young woman should be to marry, rear children and be the queen of a home. Those that prefer frivolities will see their mistakes."

Besides making money in wholesale lots, he has had time to observe health rules.

"My formula for long life is moderation and modesty in all things. Live within your conscience, work save, and play the game straight with your fellow man."

"Don't overwork your stomach any more than you would a steam boiler."

"This canny gentleman believes that John D. Rockefeller is the greatest man in the world, not excepting Henry Ford."

Why shouldn't he?

Doesn't he own plenty of Standard stock?

MAN WITH THE HOE NO LONGER BURDENED

By Royal S. Copeland, M. D.

This is a beautiful day. I am on a train between Pittsburgh and Washington. The sun shines brightly and I long to be out on the hills instead of in this car, comfortable as it is.

I sometimes wonder if country people enjoy their privileges as they should.

Born on a farm, I know the disadvantages of farm life as well as its attractions. Its monotony, its isolations, its hard, seasonal labor, its unfair economic conditions—all these I am familiar with.

But modern invention has done much for the farmer and his family. The automobile, the telephone, the rural mail delivery, and particularly the radio—these have revolutionized farm life. The church, the movie, the shops, the relatives, are all within easy reach.

Cheap electricity and its transmission throughout the farm sections will be the next step to improve farm conditions. The electric dch-washer and ironer and churner and sewing machine will lighten the labor of the farm house.

The other day I had a visit with one of my cousins, the housewife in a real country home. She is a famous cook, the old-fashioned kind. To my amazement, my cousin was in rhapsodies of delight over an electric stove just installed. She had taken to it as a duck does to water.

No more wood to fetch, no more fires to build, no more smoky flues, no more uneven temperatures—here is a device that makes baking scientific.

Tomorrow's HORIZONSCOPE

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 26

Sunday's horizon is a celestial honor not on earth but a heavenly possession.—Plato

Those whose birthday it is are continued by a rather serious place share of affairs which should not be stored into strife and quarrels. Things should be conservatively handled and change postponed. A rise born on this day may have a disastrous effect on the future unless given an equanimity of mind in youth. Advanced philosophy should be instilled.

Notable Nativities: Henry W. Longfellow, poet

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 27

Monday's astrological forecast shows many opportunities for growth and advancement, but also avenues for prodigious blunders. The latter may be avoided by signing waivers of every kind with caution and looking for the share in new undertakings. Otherwise bold ventures and initiative will win.

Those whose birthday it is may have a year of splendid opportunity before them with the energies and vision revealed to the winning point but be careful in new undertakings and sign all writings cautiously. Subtlety is shown. A child born on this day may be excellently endowed with talents and energies for success and fine position in life but it should be taught the larger of exercising expediency and craft against principle and integrity.

Notable Nativities: Ellen Terry, English actress.

doesn't cost much to connect up the water supply and to place the pump in a convenient spot. It will save "Ma" and the girls a lot of discomfort and hard colds to have the pump indoors.

Have you thought of damming up the stream or putting a reservoir at the spring, so water can be piped to the house? I did that and we have just as comfortable bathrooms at the farm as we do in town.

Perhaps the kitchen chimney needs to be cleaned or a new stove installed. You may be told, "It is good enough," but don't you believe it. You will get a lot of new dishes, pies and things if the stove works just right.

Help to lighten the labor and thus to improve the health of the good housewife. She will live years longer if you do this and will be happy to think you have her welfare at heart, as of course you have.

OPERATORS TAKE COMMITTEE FOR TOUR OF MINES

Other Side of Soft Coal Strike Presented To Senate Probers

Pittsburgh, Feb. 25.—The other side of the soft coal strike controversy was presented today to the senate investigating committee.

After spending two days with officials of the United Mine Workers in probing conditions among the strikers, the committee today went on a tour conducted by the operators. The program was arranged by J. D. A. Morrow, president of the Pittsburgh Coal company, and Horace F. Baker, president of the Pittsburgh Terminal Coal corporation.

Both companies operate with non-union labor. Baker did not make the trip but the committee may get a statement from him later. Tomorrow the committee, headed by Senator Gaudin (R) of Idaho, and composed of Senators Wheeler (D) of Montana, Wagner (D) of New York and Pine (R) of Oklahoma, plans to wind up its inquiry in the Pittsburgh area and launch an investigation in the central Pennsylvania field, making headquarters in Indiana, Pa.

Out of the numberless stories of brutality, suffering and distress which have been laid before the committee one of the most gripping came at the Kinloch mine of the Valley Vista Coal company where the lives of ten non-union men were crushed out last Monday in an explosion.

The committee arrived at the mine shortly after the burial of the men. In a frame office the senators grouped around the mine superintendent.

A hundred and one questions were shot at the superintendent by the committee.

PLACE FORGERY CHARGE AGAINST GUARD MEMBERS

Detroit, Feb. 25.—Twelve members of Michigan's national guard had been arraigned secretly in federal court here on charges of forgery and padding payrolls. It was learned today.

Over 650 checks were stolen or forged by commanding officers of the 125th division since the early part of last year. It is said. Privates who were attending drill and were to be paid off in government checks for their services, did not receive their compensation, it is alleged. The privates were threatened with court martial if they exposed the practice, it is said.

Watson, Indiana.

Out of all these Republican and Democratic first and second choice willis, Hoover, Louden, Watson and Curtis are the only ones who have actively entered the race for the presidential nomination.

Donahay Boosted

Supporters of Gov. Vic Donahay here today openly manifested their hope that, after a few complimentary votes are cast for Pomerene at the Democratic National convention, the Ohio delegation will throw its votes to Donahay for the Democratic presidential nomination.

The Republican and Democratic delegations will each include two delegates and two alternates from each of Ohio's 22 congressional districts.

The leaders of the Willis and Hoover camps today were preparing for a strenuous pre-primary campaign in Ohio. It was pointed out that the preferential vote next April will not be binding upon any delegate. The sole purpose of this "straw vote," as political leaders styled it, is to afford Buckeye state voters opportunity for free expression of their personal choice of a candidate for president.

Willis Delegates

The aspirants to candidacy as announced from Sen. Willis' headquarters here, include: Delegates-at-large—Col. Carl Thompson, Cleveland; Sen. Gimenez O. Ross, Yellow Springs; Wilma Sinclair Levan, Steubenville; E. W. Ross and A. Lee Besty both of Cincinnati; Fred W. Warner, Marion; Col. Edward Vollrath, Bucyrus. Alternates-at-large—Charles Brand, Urbana; Mrs. Anasa Mathew, Cleveland; Mrs. Viola D. Romans, Columbus; Scott Webb, Columbus; J. W. Meyer, Hamilton; Clayton Terrell, Clinton County.

British Submarine Starts On Longest Cruise In History

London, Feb. 25.—One of the longest submarine cruises in history is now in progress by two under-sea craft that were constructed in Britain for service in Australian waters. The submarines—the Odey and Odey—which left Portsmouth, Eng., on Feb. 8, are due at Sydney, New South Wales, early in May. They will have cruised 13,000 miles unescorted.

The first ports of call were Gibraltar, Malta and Port Said. The submarines are due to reach Colombo, Ceylon, on March 19. After a brief stay they will continue on their way via Balawan, Singapore, Batavia, Kepong and thence to Thursday Island in the Torres Straits, where they will be met by an Australian vessel.

While a cruise of such duration in tropical waters necessarily will be attended with some discomfort for the crew, the boats are fairly large and roomy and represent the very latest in submarine construction.

JURY IN HAND ROBBERY TRIAL IS DISCHARGED

Bucyrus, Feb. 25.—Unable to reach a decision in the robbery trial of Arthur Hand, Toledo, charged with complicity in the robbing of the Commercial Savings bank of Galion, the jury was discharged here early today, and Hand was returned to the county jail, unable to furnish bond. The jury had deliberated more than eight hours.

Hand's brother, Wilbur, and Harry Zillick, who were tried on like charges, were found guilty at previous trials, but are at liberty under $25,000 bond each, pending decision of the court of appeals.

Socialists to Name Governor Candidate

Cleveland, Feb. 25.—Joseph V. Sharts, Dayton attorney, was expected to be nominated as a candidate for governor of Ohio at the state Socialist convention which opened here today for a two-day session.

Delegates to the national convention in New York, April 14, are to be selected during the convention here.

Flight Postponed By Mrs. Lindbergh

Selfridge Field, Mt. Clemens, Mich., Feb. 25.—Mrs. Evangeline Lindbergh, mother of the famous flying colonel today postponed until tomorrow her flight to Boston where she is to receive a gold medal next week at the annual meeting of the National Education Association.

Adolphus Busch's Widow Dies In West

Pasadena, Cal., Feb. 25.—Mrs. Lily Busch, widow of Adolphus Busch, millionaire brewer of St. Louis, who established the famous sunken gardens of Pasadena, died today at her home here. She was born in 1844.

Levine On Flight

Curtis Field, N. Y., Feb. 25.—Charles A. Levine and his pilot, Wilmer Stultz, left here in the trans-Atlantic plane, Columbia, at 10 a. m. today for Boston, where Levine is to be guest of honor at a banquet.

London—Steam rollers are locomotives and not motor cars, and therefore drivers of steam rollers in England need not have a license to drive a motor. This position has been established by the Automobile association by a test case wherein a man who had driven a steam roller for 30 years without license was arrested for not having one.

LEADERS SEEK COMPROMISE ON FLOOD CONTROL

Fear Congress May Not Make Good On Relief At This Session

Washington, Feb. 25.—Almost every important figure in the Coolidge administration—and many outside of it—were bending every effort today to bring about a compromise in the flood control fight.

Frankly alarmed that congress may fail to make good the nation's promise to protect the Mississippi valley from another flood as devastating as that of last spring, leaders of all factions indicated a willingness to make some concession.

Secretary of Commerce Hoover's advocacy of the Coolidge compromise and the appearance of the vastly different new flood control plan of the war department on the same day emphasized the wide variety of views on flood control.

Coolidge Plan Favored
President Coolidge's plan for postponement of a decision on the vital question of local contributions was said to be gaining favor.

Under this plan, congress would provide the money to set the flood prevention machinery in motion, but would name an economic commission to investigate the ability of the valley states to bear part of the expense.

Rep. Madden (R) of Illinois, chairman of the house appropriations committee, took the lead in an effort to bring Mayor William Hale Thompson of Chicago to agreement on a compromise.

A chairman of the Chicago flood control conference, which included prominent figures in the official and financial life of the midwest, Thompson has repeatedly demanded a government pay all policy. This policy was embraced in the bill of the house flood control committee of which Rep. Frank R. Reid (R) of Illinois, a close political friend of Thompson, is chairman and author.

Markets

PRICES HIGHER

New York Feb. 25.—Stock prices in all departments were slightly higher at the opening of the market today. U. S. Steel sold at 147 1/2, General Motors at 147 1/2, and General Electric at 147 1/2. Copper was steady, with Anaconda and Kennecott each up 1/2 at 35 1/2 and 32 1/2, respectively.

Wool was active and higher. New York Central gained to 65 1/2, Pennsylvania advanced 1/2 to 65 1/2, and New York, New Haven & Hartford rose 1/2 to 62. Mothers advanced fractionally, although U. S. Rubber declined 1/2 to 45 1/2.

Friday's closing rally in the industrial stocks was carried into the first period today, and further improvement was recorded in prices of the active stocks which bore the brunt of the week's selling pressure. The speculative interest aroused in the railroad stocks was exhibited in the active buying of Wabash, St. Louis Southwestern, Erie, Pennsylvania and other rail shares at 1 to 3 points above Friday's close.

Proponents of resumption of Washington in the proposed trunk line negotiations under the Van Swearingen and Leroy leadership have brought the stock of this road to the fore as an attractive speculation. The stock has moved up from 54 to above 60 since Friday noon when the first rumors of the possible resumption of the line trip on the road reached the financial district.

The week-end trade reviews were very encouraging. Both Dunn and Bradstreet's surveys reported "improvement" in the important lines of domestic trade, with a falling off in demand for commodities that are generally moving to market quite freely at this time of year. Continued exportation of gold, with uninterrupted selling of securities by the Reserve banks, may operate to reduce the supply of funds for speculative purposes in the Wall Street and this will force further liquidation of stocks.

Pennsylvania was a leader in the forward move of high grade, dividend-paying railroad stocks. In contrast with most of the Class I roads, Pennsylvania broke all records for peacetime earnings in 1927, and current business on the road is in satisfactory volume.

Charging unlawful acquisition of the stock of Katy and the cotton belt (St. Louis) Southern lines, the Interstate Commerce commission filed a complaint against the Kansas City Southern railway, which is also controlled by L. F. Leroy, chairman of the board. Should the commission be successful in its efforts to compel Kansas City Southern to "divest itself" of all interest in the capital stock of these roads, it will place in the competitive markets two or more lines of strategic value and importance. Kansas City Southern was in good demand today at a slightly higher level of prices.

Shorts in International Nickel, radio and other speculative leaders found the supply of floating stocks somewhat limited and were forced to bid 1 to 3 points higher. Lehigh and Pottsville continued to move upward, while Wabash, Aeronautical, and Texas Sulphur stocks were in demand on reports of a firm market for their product as well as bullish statements relative to the latest surveys of their producing properties.

Story-Book Romance Has Parallel in Real Life

Viennese Girl Didn't Know Her Fiance Was Actually a U. S. Millionaire

BY GARRY FRENCH

(International Illustrated News Staff Correspondent)

ONE of the most remarkable real-life romances has come to its happy culmination in the marriage, in Chicago, of William Rosenwald, youngest son of Julius Rosenwald, the noted philanthropist, to Miss Renee Scharf. Young Rosenwald, some time ago, was on a tour of the Continent, and it was while he was in Vienna that he first met Miss Scharf, a native of the Austrian metropolis.

It was a case of love at first sight, as the novelists are so fond of saying.

Miss Scharf, the daughter of Victor Scharf, the famous Viennese portrait painter, had no knowledge that the young American was one of the wealthiest youths in the world.

It wasn't until she came to America that she found it out, and, naturally, when it was discovered that the girl loved Rosenwald for himself alone, that fact battered down whatever little opposition might have developed against the union.

Miss Scharf was astounded upon being informed that her fiance's family was one of the richest in the United States. In fact, she was almost overcome.

And so another Cinderella romance was completed.

Perhaps if this very same situation had been used in a story or movie, captions critics would have turned up their noses at it and would have declared it was "too far fetched."

But truth is a great deal stranger than fiction, and about the only thing that can be added to the story of Mr. and Mrs. William Rosenwald of Chicago is the story book hope that they will "live happy ever after."

The Scarf of Enduring Appeal

Scarves of All Proportions Add Much to the Ensemble. Their Novelty Is Ensured by Their Unusual Patterns and Prints

THE scarf is so essential an accessory to so many types of dresses that it is well nigh indispensable in the fashionable woman's wardrobe. Color is of course an important item in choosing the scarf. It frequently lends an important touch to the entire ensemble. But for novelty the scarf that boasts picturesque scenes and designs is really the season's choicest gift to sartorial effectiveness.

Vivid pictorial designs from foreign countries are some of the designs of outstanding distinction. They are often long and narrow and made to wrap around the neck several times and still leave long ends to fall below the waist. Attractive color combinations are made in tape-like borders which make a pretty framework for the main designs. These designs while in some cases seen in only one part of the scarf, in other cases is repeated throughout the entire length of the scarf. The light pastel shades are most often used for evening while the deeper tones are used for the daytime costumes.

To the gorgeous array of scarves that are everywhere attracting attention, John Held, Jr., has contributed a series that should prove extremely popular—particularly with the young folk. He has taken various college colors and portrayed the social and athletic activities of the school miss upon them. In addition he has managed to use as backgrounds the pastel tints so largely popular. They are given dash by white, ivory, pale blue, beige and gray as suitable backs for his colorful drawings. The drawings introduce humor and action in their figures and are most amusing. The scarves are generally in square and oblong shapes and they tie very nicely. There are also handkerchiefs to match. It is a scarf of John Held, Jr., that Ann Rork wears with so much dash to accompany a chic sport costume in a scene from the First National film, "A Texas Steer."

Of course there are also scarves of plain solid colors that are worn smartly and tied Deauville fashion on the sport dress. Those, too, are attractive in various patterns with colors harmoniously blended. Indeed it is the day of the scarf in all its colorful appeal.

CAVALRY HORSE HAS GIVEN WAY TO GAS MOTOR

War Department prepares To Motorize Cavalry Units At Once

Washington, Feb. 25. — The last stronghold of the horse in America—the army unit—has fallen before the irresistible advance of machinery and the gasoline motor.

The war department today announced a program to motorize cavalry units as rapidly as personnel can be trained.

Following an intensive general staff study of the influence of mechanical units upon the fundamental principles of tactics and strategy, the first armored car unit has been placed in the field at Ft. Myer, Virginia. After a period of experimental activity at various camps under experts in the new science of "military mechanization," the "troop" will become a part of the first cavalry division at Fort Bliss, El Paso, Texas. Other cavalry companies will be converted as rapidly as possible.

Although itself a negligible force from the standpoint of military value, the experimental unit is regarded by army experts as a departure of epochal significance, comparable in its effect upon land warfare with the introduction of steel armor in naval construction. It signifies a new era in tactical science, in which long range artillery combat and intensive trench warfare will once more give way to open fighting between highly mobile units.

No, you can't always judge people by their appearance. For that matter the above picture may be that of a fairly intelligent person who might even possess a certain amount of good common sense and helpful suggestions. Who knows? At any rate, you're almost sure to get the kind of financial service and friendly treatment you're looking for at The City Loan. Your looks and our looks has little to do with helping you get money so long as you feel perfectly safe in borrowing here and entirely satisfied in this method of handling a loan.

The next time you need extra money permit The City Loan to prove the merits of its popular loan plan.

WEIGHT LIFTING CHAMPION WILL GIVE EXHIBITION

Walter Stratton to Show
Wares at Salem Golf Club Wednesday

IN TRAINING FOR
OLYMPIC TRYOUTS

Young Muscle King Holds
Many Records; Trains
in Leetonia

Walter F. Stratton, holder of international and national weight lifting records and now in training at Leetonia for the Olympic tryouts will give an exhibition at the Salem Golf club at 8 p. m. Wednesday.

Stratton, 35 years of age, weighs 167 pounds and is 5 feet, 5 inches tall. He is a mass of muscle, and has had several trainings under such experts as Earl E. Liederman, one of the world's most famous "strong men," and Milo Bar.

The young muscle king has been lifting weights for three and a half years. In 1925, soon after he began training, he captured fourth prize in the international posing contest staged by Leetonia men in which 100-000 persons participated.

Stratton took part in the contests at the Sesqui-Centennial at Philadelphia, winning the silver medal for second place in the lifting contest.

He holds the following records: right arm bent press, 215 pounds; left arm bent press, 204 pounds; two hands, jerk from behind the neck, 244 pounds; two hands, slow press, (Olympic style), 199 pounds; two hands, continental jerk, 275 pounds; two dumbbells, clean and jerk, 218 pounds.

Stratton holds the world's record for the leg press of 325 pounds, doing this 28 successive times.

In training for the Olympic games Stratton has been going through two general workouts each week, and he will give a complete exhibition of his wares before the golf club. Dinner will be served at 6:30 and the exhibition follows.

DISTRICT CAGE RIVALS TO MEET TUESDAY NIGHT

Columbiana Boosters And
Mullins Book 2 Games;
First In Salem

Mullins will meet the Columbiana Boosters a district rival at the High school gym next Thursday night.

The teams of similar caliber, have gone through a season of much success, meeting teams played by the other, and now a home and home agreement has been reached for an important two-game series. The team will meet at Columbiana March 6.

Manager Clarence Dehn's independent five has added Tony Paul, star, right center of the Youngstown Big Y team, to the squad, making a lineup of all stars. Parker Orr, Leetonia football coach; Buck Burke, Boardman coach; Kenny Dowd, erstwhile Mullins forward; Boots Hawkins, rancor center; and Barbe make up the Columbiana combination.

Manager A. V. Witt of Mullins has received a letter from the Steubenville McGuffey's, declaring here this week in a close game, in which the manager praises the Salem team as "one of the best teams we have played in three years of hard campaigning."

Furthermore, the treatment of the Salem team and fans was exceeding fine, says the letter, and expects that received in many larger cities, according to the epistle.

Practically every visiting team this year has had words of praise for the reception accorded here. One of the original Nordics liked Salem very much and mentioned the fact that Mullins was one of only two teams which held an advantage at half time against the Nordics this season.

The challenge of the Damascus Quakers is being considered but a reply will be withheld until some time next week.

Herbert Will Give Exhibition Between Halves of Big Game

Loren Herbert, Salem High and Mount Union graduate, who is an amateur basketballist, will give an exhibition between halves of the East Liverpool-Salem boys game Saturday night at the High school gym.

This added attraction was arranged yesterday afternoon by school officials. The performance is said to be one of skill and endurance.

Frye, of Youngstown, and Butler, of New Philadelphia, will officiate in the title game. Butler is the official requested by East Liverpool, while Frye was selected by Salem.

The second Black varsity and Room 206-A school room champs, will clash at 7; the Salem and East Liverpool Girls at 8; and the Boys at 9.

Cadets Cheer Navy
Basketball Squad

West Point, N. Y., Feb. 25.—The first meeting between the Army and Navy in any sport since their football break will take place this afternoon when the basketball teams of the two service schools clash here.

The navy squad was met at the station by the entire cadet corps and cheered to the echo.

McLARNIN STOPS TERRIS IN FIRST WITH FAST BLOW

Jimmy's Kayo Landed With So Much Speed
The Fans Couldn't See It; All Over
In One Minute and 47 Seconds

BY DAVIS J. WALSH

New York, Feb. 25.—The lightweight division, almost conquered by the deeds of Gans, McAuliffe, Nelson, Lavigne, Welsh, Griffin and other immortals, had its modern idol today, the first since Benny Leonard passed into the limbo of pugilism "forgotten." He is a lecherous from out of the west, indeed—a young knight of the mallet flat, with the face of a cherub and the punch of a pole-axe—Jimmy McLarnin by name and petronous by nature.

McLarnin qualified beyond further preamble for a title match with Lightweight Champion Sammy Mandell by knocking out Terry Terris last night with a punch so fast and so quick that Terris reacted in surprise.

Sidney, but on the chin with a left and a right in the first two minutes of play, simply stood transfixed for a dramatic second or two and then collapsed on his face to be counted out.

Right Hand Is Fast
That right hand, the greatest thing this writer has ever seen, was so fast that it deflected the message of the knockout to Terry's brain by at least a full second.

It was all over in 1 minute and 47 seconds but a well-out crowd of some 10,000 had seen what it wanted to see, the making of an overnight sensation who will pack them in and turn them away from now on until further notice. He is the new one-shot man, the latest killer and they devotedly love that kind.

Did Dempsey say he was through? What of it, forsooth? We have our Jimmy McLarnin and we expect to hear up bravely with the situation until a better man turns up, which may not be soon.

Color? Why you just can't help

Training Camp Notes

Hot Springs, Ark., Feb. 25.—Pitcher Vic Aldridge, obtained by the New York Giants from Pittsburgh, is still keeping Manager John McGraw on the anxious seat. Requested by McGraw to report for work here Aldridge wired last night that he had sent a letter explaining his tardiness.

Aldridge is not missing much work as rain and cold weather are keeping the other New York battery men idle.

Catalina Island, Calif., Feb. 25.—If the Cubs don't win the National League pennant, the Pittsburgh Pirates probably will.

Such was the observation of Joe McCarthy, Cubs' boss, after a thoughtful gaze into the crystal waters of Catalina bay.

Meanwhile the business of getting the Bruins in shape to cop the flag themselves, goes merrily on. Joe Kelly, who wrenched his leg Thursday, was back in uniform, but he did very little work. The Cubs' first practice game is scheduled for tomorrow.

New Orleans, Feb. 25.—With rain and continued cool weather pressed here for today the Cleveland Indians' manager, Roger Peckinpaugh believes his team will not be able to get its real outdoor workout of the season before next week. Yesterday the Tribesmen were forced to exercise in the Elks gymnasium and the program is the same for today, it was said.

DAMASCUS WINS AT SALINEVILLE BY LONE POINT

Quakers Jump Into Lead
In County League By
27-28 Victory

Damascus went into the lead in the county cage league Friday night when the Quakers nipped out the Salineville Kivans 28 to 27, on the Salineville floor. Previous to this game the two teams were tied for first.

The Quakers did what no other team has been able to do all season—defeat Salineville on the latter's floor, and the victory was accomplished despite the fact that Damascus played the final four minutes with only four men.

So many fouls were called that Coy and Rackenbaugh of Damascus went out of the game. This made necessary the playing of the last four minutes with four players. Damascus had a four point lead and managed to keep a lead until the end of the game despite the big handicap.

Rackenbaugh made 16 points before he was excused, but Coy, the scoring ace, was held to three points.

The Quakers now stand a chance of opposing the second half title and facing East Liverpool in the "little world's series."

REPORT RUTH IN FINE CONDITION

New York, Feb. 25.—Babe Ruth, training camp bound today with Buster Gehrig and three other members of the New York Yankees, is in first class physical condition for his campaign to set a new home run record.

Measurements given out by Artie McCovern, the Hamling's trainer, show that Ruth weighs only 214 pounds, two pounds lighter than last year and measures only 37 1/2 inches around the waist, as compared to 39 inches last season and 42 inches in 1926.

Nearly a hundred Yankee fans and a band were on hand when the advance guard of the world's champions left last night for St. Petersburg, Fla. The first workout will be held on Monday.

MANDELL WELL PLEASED OVER FIGHT RESULT

Rockford, Ill., Feb. 25.—Sammy Mandell, lightweight champion of the world, today declared himself surprised but well pleased over the result of the Jimmy McLarnin-Terris fight in New York last night. "I am glad the verdict was so decisive," added Sammy. "That will pack 'em in at our championship match in Chicago this June. McLarnin surely must be good to dispose of a man like Terris in such summary fashion."

Springer to Teach At Harvard During Summer Sessions

Wilbur J. Springer, athletic director at Salem High school, has been appointed a regular instructor in physical education for the summer session of Harvard university. It was announced today at Cambridge.

Springer, who took post-graduate work at Harvard, has been an assistant instructor in the summer school. His work was of such merit that he has been given the promotion to regular instructor and an increase in salary, effective this summer. The Salem coach will leave soon after the close of school for his summer work.

FIGHT RESULTS

Dominick Petrone outpointed Lou Perfetti, eight rounds. Both are new found featherweights.

Willie Siegel, New York lightweight, kayeed Walter Babcock, Jersey City, five rounds.

Tunney Gives Tex His Services In '29

New York, Feb. 25.—Gene Tunney has agreed to give Tex Rickard the exclusive right to his services in 1929 according to the promoter. The heavyweight champion's first 1928 title match has been set tentatively for the night of June 14 at Yankee stadium here.

Amarillo, Tex.—Texas is host to Toodles, a distinguished dog, owned by Dr. John Winthrop Sargent, British archaeologist, who is here on research tasks. Finleys Melody Band To Give Program At Grand Next Week; Alexander, Dog Star, Coming Finley's Melody band, Salem's own, in a unit presentation program, and Alexander, a $35,000 dog star, hold the spotlight on the theater programs for next week. The orchestra will appear at the Grand Wednesday and Thursday.

Manager Rollin Finley will stage the first unit show in which a Salem orchestra has appeared. The orchestra of ten will be directed by Raymond Bartholomew, one of the city's leading musicians, who recently returned from Florida to head the Finley group. The program will be of a diversified nature.

Jackie May and Mary Ellen Gish, two of the youngest artists on the professional stage, will be in two acts which are part of the Finley unit presentation. These two Sharn, Pa., youngsters have contracted to appear with Finley's presentation for the balance of the season.

The Finley orchestra made a hit with its program last season, and since then has enjoyed success on the stage in a number of Ohio cities. The orchestra also has broadcast from WEAR, Cleveland, and WADC, Akron.

P. L. Davis, of Hollywood, will bring his dog, Alexander, to the Grand Monday and Tuesday. The movie canine actor is insured for $35,000, an aid is said to be rapidly on the road to fame such as Rin-Tin-Tin and Strongheart are enjoying. An interesting act is promised, and for the school children Alexander will perform at 3:45 Monday at a special matinee.

The feature picture Monday and Tuesday is "The Outlawed Dog," with Ranger, another dog actor, in the leading role. Kelley's Country store will be given on the stage Monday night only.

"The Return of Boston Blackie," a picturization of Jack Boyle's crook drama, is to be shown Wednesday and Thursday. By a coincidence, Strongheart, the police dog, has a part in this picture.

Hard-working Tom Mix, leading western player, appears in "Silver Valley" at the Grand Friday and Saturday. Tom takes up aviation as an added thriller in this film.

The Saturday picture bill for the week is an excellent one, and is headed by "Men of Israel," a European spectacle, Monday and Tuesday. This film was purchased by FBO and brought to this country for first showing at Rex's theater in New York, where it caught on instantly. It is said to rival in lavishness the noted "King of Kings," and was put out expressly to "beat the time" of the DeMille super-picture. Marie Corda and Arlette Marchal appear in leading roles in this tale of a slave girl's love for an Egyptian prince.

Lew Cody, usually the home wrecker, has a husband's role and finds another, Owen Moore, in the philanderer role in "Tea for Three," a farce starring Allen Pringle, booked for Wednesday and Thursday.

Jackie Coogan, no longer the boy of curls, has a part on a page on an ocean liner which sinks at sea in "Buttons," Friday and Saturday. There are plenty of thrills in this ocean going story.

Full bills for the week follow:

THE HOME KITCHEN

By Jeannette Young Norton

The onion family is a large one, healthful, inexpensive and indispensable to culinary excellence. The red or soup onion is the strongest, followed by the yellow variety. The white one is most delicate for raw use. Dried onions agree with almost every one. It is said that onions are valuable aids in pulmonary troubles, excellent for colds and malaria; that onion tea is used in dissolving gall stones and is first aid in sorosis of the nerves.

Leeks are valuable in flavoring foods, steamed or creamed; or made into a medicinal tea. Chives are generally salad adjuncts, also used in flavoring of stews and sauces. Shallots are generally used in delicate sauces and fancy made dishes, as they are delicate in flavor and cook very tender.

Where onions are used in stuffing they should be chopped first and soaked in butter long enough to melt and cook slightly, for they do not cook sufficiently if put in raw. Onions were worshipped by the ancient Egyptians and their concentric rings were considered a symbol of eternity. Onion juice is excellent for flavoring when the fibre is not desired. The juice will not be noticed on the breath. It is because the onion is a long time digesting in the stomach that it scents the breath unpleasantly.

Onions Baked with Cheese
Peel as many medium-sized Spanish onions as are needed to allow cups to a portion. Boil until slightly tender, then drain and cool. When cool remove the centers with a sharp knife or spoon, leaving a half-inch wall. Chop the centers, season with pepper, salt, sugar, a very few crumbs, a little grated cheese and just enough tomato juice to moisten. Stuff the onions, set them in a buttered baking dish, put a lump of butter on top of each, and bake until a delicate brown. Baste once or twice with melted butter and a few drops of tomato juice. Serve a smooth, highly seasoned tomato sauce with the onions. It is excellent with a beefsteak dinner.

Onion and Tomato Scallop
Butter a deep pudding dish and put in a layer of sliced onion. Dust with pepper, salt and sugar and dot with butter. Sprinkle with a few crumbs; then put in a layer of sliced or drained canned tomato, then a few crumbs and more seasoning.

Continue until the dish is filled, making the onion covered with the crumbs and seasoning come on top. Strain in a small cupful of tomato juice and bake 30 minutes, or a little more, in a medium oven.

Savory Baked Onion

Take a cupful and a half each of chopped onion, applesauce, and a cupful of soft crumbs. Add pepper, salt, sugar, a tablespoonful of soft butter, a beaten egg and a teaspoonful each of chopped celery leaves and parsley. Line individual little pie dishes, or large ramekins, with good pie crust; fill with the mixture and lattice little strips of crust over the tops. Bake in a medium oven until the pie crust is done—20 to 25 minutes. Serve hot.

Is Pruning Time
Pruning Trees, Bushes, and Vines Make Them Look Better. Live Longer and Produce More Fruit.
Prune out the dead and useless branches and shoots now. It is one of the things necessary to insure good, healthy crops. With the right equipment, this disagreeable task is much easier. Short and long handled styles with sharp strong cutting blades. Make a clean cut. Will not bruise or injure the tender twig.
It's a Paying Proposition—Do It Now!

LEARN HISTORY THRU FICTION

That Is Purpose of New Type of Reading Course Library Offers

A new type of reading course is represented in two booklets published recently by the American Library association, "The Westward March of American Settlement," by Hamlin Garland and "The French Revolution as Told in Fiction," by William Stearns Davis.

These two courses are designed to interpret a definite historical period for the reader who will follow the rather unusual course of reading suggested. For it is proposed that the reader learn history through fiction.

In "The Westward March of American Settlement," Hamlin Garland, for example, suggests six books of fiction arranged according to the period in history they represent. Together these books give a chronological picture of the colonization of the west. Their pages interpret the expanding frontier, its life and hardships. The author recommends two non-fiction books to supplement the others, neither of which is to be regarded as mere history. One is Roosevelt's episodes from "The Winning of the West" and the other is Frederic Paxson's "The Last American Frontier."

Mr. Davis in his course outlines briefly the principal characters and events of the French Revolution so as to enable the reader better to enjoy the five novel she recommends for reading. He then recommends briefly on "A Tale of Two Cities," "The Adventures of Emancipation," and "Ninety-three." His recommendations also include "The French Revolution" for those who want a more complete history of the period.

In addition to these two fiction courses based upon history, there is in the "Reading With a Purpose" series a course about "Twentieth Century American Novels" by William Lyon Phelps. It is composed of nine novels by American authors considered by Mr. Phelps the best of the century. All the courses in this series and the books recommended for reading are available at the public library.
